

February 3, 2010

Dear Church,

This past year our church taught through Song of Songs during our teaching series, Undercovers: Building Intimacy in Marriage. On week three we invited Justin and Trisha Davis to come and share their story with our church. I was introduced to Pastor Justin and the www.refineus.org blog and ministry through our worship pastor. We know one of the greatest barriers to intimacy is emotional, physical, and spiritual infidelity. Our worship planning team knew this would be very intense Sunday for many. We asked Justin and Trisha to share about the darkest season in their marriage. Through humility and grace, they shared openly of the hurt, and prayerfully shared the road to restoration they are now traveling. Through the transparency of that one Sunday has given our church permission to talk openly about the secret sin of infidelity while proclaiming loudly the redemptive grace of Jesus.

I truly believe having Justin and Trisha Davis here was all a part of God's plan. I want to highly recommend this message for your congregation. They have an important message to share, and they both point unashamedly to Jesus. Whether you have people in your church who are married or single, struggling with an inappropriate relationship, martially drifting, or not, this message rings loud and true. God is after our hearts, and he desires for us to be pure. If have any further questions, please do not hesitate to call.

Prayerfully yours,

Pastor Todd Gaston
Mount Ararat Baptist Church
Stafford, Virginia 22556
www.mtararat.org
(540)659-2554